MARTIN DEEDE IS ELECTED HLDI BOARD CHAIRMAN

Arlington, VA — The Highway Loss Data Institute is pleased to announce the election of Martin Deede as the new chairman of its Board of Directors. Deede is vice president – actuarial, MetLife Auto and Home. He succeeds Bill Reddington, director, actuarial services, of Kentucky Farm Bureau Insurance Companies, who served as HLDI chairman in 2010 and will continue to serve as a Board member.

“The insurance loss information HLDI provides the public helps car buyers make informed choices, and I'm proud to be part of this important work,” Deede says. HLDI president Adrian Lund adds, “Martin’s strong leadership will help us continue to grow HLDI’s detailed analyses of motor vehicle insurance claims experience and how it varies by vehicle design.”

Serving as vice chairman is James L. Nutting, senior vice president and chief actuary, Farmers Insurance Group of Companies. Other HLDI Board members are Peter Attanasio, vice president and actuary, Chubb & Son; Howard L. Cohen, director of analytics, GEICO Corporation; Michael D. Doerfler, product development manager, Progressive Insurance; Thomas J. Ellefson, actuary-auto lines director, American Family Insurance Group; Judith M.
